REDS SLAY AN OFFICER.

HOSTILES SHOOT LIEUT. CASEY THROUGH THE HEAD.

Heavy Firing Going on Near the Camp of the Savage Army. Officer Takes the Place of Indian Agent Royer.

SHOT BY INDIANS.

PINE RIDGE, S. D., Jan. 8.—A courier has just come in from General Brooke's headquarters on Wounded Knee creek with a dispatch for General Miles to the effect that heavy firing is going on in the direction of the hostile camp and that he believes some portion of the troops have engaged the rebellious Sioux. His forces are ready to move just as soon as it can be definitely learned where and what the fighting is. Scouts have been sent out from here to get at the truth and all is excitement. General Miles has also received an official report that Lieutenant Edward W. Casey, Company H, Twenty-second Infantry, has been killed by the hostiles. The unfortunate young officer had gone too near the hostile camp, when he was fired on and shot through the head. His body has been recovered.

The hostiles, according to the reports of scouts, have nearly completed their rifle pits on the bluffs, thirteen miles north of the agency. Every old Indian fighter here says that if General Miles were hampered at Washington he could end the trouble in two weeks. While it is an actual impossibility to surround the Indians in a way that will effectively prevent some of them from getting through the cordon of troops, yet at the same time, army officers here say, the reds could be crushed by a central movement of the troops now around them that the mischief done by the escaping few would be reduced to a minimum.

The Indians protest vigorously against the transfer of their care to the War Department, saying that the military men keep them too strictly and would not allow them to work their farms. The body of Christopher Miller, a heretofore peaceable Indian, who was killed by a Red Eagle, a friendly Indian, Wednesday and brought to the agency. There were three bullet-holes in Miller's head and two in his breast, while his skull was crushed in with a club. Miller had been beyond the cordon of troops, and not having heard of the battle at that point he started for Pine Ridge alone. He had been noted for his kindness to the Indians, and evidently had no fear when two of them whom he knew approached him. They got close to his pony and then drawing revolvers together fired simultaneously. The deed was witnessed by a "friendly."

General Miles has not yet heard from Big Road, Jack Red Cloud, He Dog and Little Hawk, who conferred with him Monday last and returned to the hostiles. Late Wednesday evening the General received word from Red Cloud to the effect that he would come in this morning and bring all the Indians he could with him. The General thinks that two strikes will accompany Red Cloud and that they will be followed by all the other Indians.

General Miles is satisfied that the transfer of the agencies to army officers will insure to the benefit and happiness of the Indians. He bases his opinion upon the record of the men who have been recommended for the several positions at the Tongue River, Standing Rock, Rosebud, Cheyenne River and Pine Ridge agencies.

OMAHA, Neb., Jan. 8.—General Colby, of the State militia, has eighteen companies protecting the towns of Valentine, Cody, Gordon, Rushville, Hay Springs, Chadron, Crawford and Harrison, extending 150 miles along the western boundary of the Pine Ridge and Rosebud agencies. The companies comprise 1,700 men. Buffalo Bill is assistant to General Colby and will arrive at the agency to-day to confer with General Miles. Colonel Baker, of Omaha, and Major Comery, of Cheyenne, have arrived to pay the troops in the field. It will require $60,000 to do this.

SALT LAKE CITY, U. T., Jan. 8.—A special from Pocatello, Idaho, just received, says the Indians are burning the town. Troops have been asked for from Boise City.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Secretaries Prentiss and Noble and General Schofield had a conference at the War Department Wednesday afternoon in regard to the Indian troubles, and it was agreed to recommend to the President the appointment of an officer of the army as agent of the Indians at the Pine Ridge agency, thus necessitating the retirement of Indian Agent Royer from that duty. The officer so appointed will, however, retain his position in the army. The Indian agents at the other agencies will not be disturbed, but as shown in General Schofield's telegram of the 6th inst. to General Miles, army officers have been designated to take military control of four other agencies, with instructions to co-operate with the agents of the Interior Department. The report that these agents have been displaced is without foundation, except so far as relates to the Pine Ridge agency. Captain Pierce, of the First Infantry, has been selected as agent at the Pine Ridge agency, and he will probably be appointed by the President.

King Charles, of Roumania, to Abolish. BUCHAREST, Jan. 8.—It is stated here that King Charles I. of Roumania has decided to abdicate within a short time in favor of his nephew, Prince Ferdinand, known as the Prince of Roumania, the second son of the elder brother of Charles I.

A Boy and Many Horses Burned. MODESTO, Cal., Jan. 8.—Wallace's livery and feed stable was destroyed by fire Wednesday morning. Twenty-two horses were burned. Jacob Claypool, a 16-year-old boy, was also burned.

Canada's Military Force. OTTAWA, Ont., Jan. 8.—The seeming gravity of the situation over the Behring sea dispute elicits the information that the military department of Canada has now enrolled over 30,000 men, and the official data shows that the number on a war footing, including reserves, would reach about 300,000.

Six Blocks Burned. CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 8.—At the village of McComb, O., Wednesday morning six business blocks were destroyed by fire, causing a loss of $35,000; insurance, $10,000.

STRUCK BY A TRAIN.

One Man Killed Instantly and Three Others Fatally Hurt at a Railway Crossing in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Jan. 8.—One man lost his life and three others were fatally injured Wednesday evening about 7 o'clock by an Illinois Central train on the Burlington tracks at the intersection of Forty-eighth street. Charles Geisler, Charles Geismeyer, Martin Raab and Christopher Immer, employees of Lyon & Healy, were seated in a piano truck and were on their way back to the city. The wagon was drawn by two spirited horses, and when near the tracks Geisler, who was driving, pulled up to let an east-bound passenger train, which was running at the rate of twenty-five miles an hour, pass. The horses became frightened, and rearing frantically, plunged in front of the locomotive. The wagon was smashed into a thousand pieces and the occupants were thrown high in the air. One horse was instantly killed. Geismeyer was thrown about fifty feet and was dead before he struck the ground. Raab came down about 100 feet from the track. His skull was fractured and his left arm broken and he sustained severe internal injuries. Geisler was sent flying into the air, and when he struck the ground he rolled over and over until his body was one mass of bruises. His left shoulder was broken, his left hand smashed and his scalp torn into strips. Immer was knocked senseless and suffered a concussion of the brain.

TRAGEDY IN ILLINOIS.

At May City, in Pope County, Charles Rose Fatally Shoots His Sweetheart and Kills Himself.

METROPOLIS, Ill., Jan. 8.—News of a terrible tragedy that occurred near May City, Pope County, has just reached here. Charles Rose, a farmer, aged 27 years, has been paying attention to the daughter of a neighboring farmer, Miss Mollie Welsh, aged 18. Rose was married to Miss Welsh, but by her parents, but last Sunday, while her parents were absent at church, Rose visited the house and induced the young woman to take a walk with him. They had proceeded but a short distance when he asked her if she was willing to die for him. She replied yes, and thereupon he drew a pistol and fired, the ball taking effect in the girl's face inflicting a probably fatal wound. Young Rose then returned, locked himself in a room and blew out his brains.

ALL ARE RECONCILED.

IRISH FACTIONS REACH SATISFACTORY TERMS.

The Retirement of Justin McCarthy from the Leadership Insisted Upon by Mr. Parnell and Said to Have Been Agreed To.

THE BASIS OF SETTLEMENT.

LONDON, Jan. 8.—A telegram has been received from Boulogne giving the basis of settlement agreed upon by Parnell and O'Brien, and concurred in by the other members of the Irish party present at Boulogne. Justin McCarthy is to resign the chairmanship, and a meeting of all the members of the Irish Parliamentary party, including Parnellites and anti-Parnellites, is to be called, at which a new chairman will be elected. Mr. Parnell and Mr. Harrington have agreed, in behalf of themselves and the followers, to give cordial support to whomever the majority may select. The choice is said to be in doubt between Arthur O'Connor and Mr. O'Brien.

Boulogne-Sur-Mer, Jan. 8.—An authorized statement has been issued by the Irish leaders who have been present at the conference here. They announce that the conference has terminated and that both parties interested have resolved that the proceedings should be regarded as of a confidential nature. It is understood, however, that the exchange of views which has taken place has led to the hope that a peaceable settlement of the matters in dispute will ensue.

The usual number of rumors and contradictory statements are in circulation, and the announcement made may be considered to be the substance of the real facts. In other words an arrangement satisfactory to all seems to have been arrived at. The exact nature of this arrangement must leak out in the course of time. The number of erroneous statements made in regard to the Boulogne conference has made the Irish leaders resolve to be more than usually careful as to their utterances.

LONDON, Jan. 8.—Advices received in this city from Boulogne-sur-Mer say that upon Mr. O'Brien's personal entreaty he was empowered to ask Mr. Justin McCarthy to retire from the chairmanship of the anti-Parnell section of the Irish party in favor of Mr. John Dillon, M. P., or it is understood the conference agreed that if Mr. O'Brien preferred to do so (Mr. O'Brien) could serve as chairman. According to the same advices Mr. O'Brien and Mr. McCarthy are to have an interview at Boulogne to-day, when the final settlement of the subject will be made. Mr. Gladstone is understood to have approved the plan decided upon and the Parnellites are said to be pledged to abandon Mr. Parnell if he proves sincere in the pledges given. Mr. John Dillon has cabled from New York his approval of Mr. Parnell's temporary retirement from the chairmanship of the Irish Parliamentary party in favor of Mr. O'Brien. The negotiations with Mr. McCarthy will follow.

A conference of the McCarthyites was held Wednesday at the National Liberal Club. The news received from Boulogne in regard to the conference between the Irish leaders which is being held in that city was satisfactory to the McCarthyites and the members of the club. A majority of the National Liberals express themselves as having no fear of the McCarthyites agitating any line of action tending to weaken the alliance between the Irish party and the Gladstonians.

IN CONGRESS.

The House Spends the Day in Consideration of the Shipping Bill—Free Cargo Discussed in the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—The House on Wednesday went into committee of the whole, Mr. Burrows (Mich.) in the chair, for the further consideration of the shipping bill. Addresses were made by Messrs. Herbert (Ala.), Dingley (Me.), Dockery (Mo.) and Farquhar (N. Y.).

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—A rather unique measure was introduced Wednesday in the Senate in the shape of a bill by Senator Teller (Col.) at the request of some colored people's association of this city. It directs the Secretary of the Treasury to pay to certain agents, to be named hereafter, $50,000, to secure land in Lower California for the permanent settlement of colored people of the United States who wish to establish a colony there, the money to be returned to the Government, with interest, in forty years.

Discussion of the financial bill occupied the rest of the session. Senators Daniel (Va.) and Plumb (Kan.) favoring and Senator Hisecock (N. Y.) opposing free coinage of silver.

Kuhns Taken to Ohio.

Tiffin, O., Jan. 8.—Merrin Kuhns, the noted murderer and all-round desperado, has been brought to this city from Indiana and committed to the Seneca County jail to stand trial for the murder of William Campbell. The prisoner was almost literally clothed with iron, being shackled at both arms and feet with chains from the wrists to the ankles. The defense will likely be an alibi.

HOW IT WAS UNDER FREE TRADE.

The democratic Chicago Herald and the democratic Milwaukee Journal are fond of telling how the farmer "puts on his shirt, taxed 35 per cent, jumps into his cow-hide boots, taxed 19½ per cent, washes his face in a tin basin, taxed one cent, how many per cent, etc., etc."

Let's look on the other side of the picture a moment.
Under the democratic free-trade the farmer paid $3 for an ax to chop his wood with; under protection he can buy the same ax for 75 cents. Steel under the good old democratic days cost $200 a ton; now under protection it costs $34 a ton, and this country takes the lead of all others in the production of steel.

The howl about taxing the people by protecting home industries is nonsense. There is not a man in Rock county that can tell of the amount that he is taxed to protect American institutions and labor. The truth of it is, it has as a whole greatly reduced prices. For a set of clothes that under democratic free trade you paid $25 to $30 for, you buy today under protection for from $10 to $15.

The fact that this country and all classes of people in the country have prospered more than any other country or people on the globe is an argument in favor of our way of doing business that is commendable, and which everlastingly brands democracy and free trade. Prints that cost you 25 cents per yard under free trade you buy today for from 5 to 10 cents per yard. You may travel over the entire ground and you will find that the plan of keeping house by ourselves instead of boarding with England has been a paying scheme.

HAVE TOO MANY TRAMPS.

Beloit does not seem well satisfied with the "new law" in the matter of tramp handling. The Free Press says: "It is learned that the sentence of the judge is now: Go and sin no more—that is, not in this state. If this kind-samaritan method of treating tramps who infect this city is to be continued, how long will it be before Beloit, situated as it is on the state line, will be given over to their depredations? To tell a tramp to leave the state, is simply sending him on a journey less than one hundred rods from the court room. Considering that the city remains just where it is, such a sentence entails upon the tramp the terrible hardship of a three or four minutes' walk after nightfall when he feels like coming back to prowl around."

TARIFF PICTURES.

New York Press: The McKinley bill was signed on the first of October, 1890, the first day of the last quarter of the year. Sheffield, England's great cutlery manufacturing center, had exported $74,000 worth of cutlery during the third quarter of the year. The McKinley bill knocked Sheffield's cutlery exports in the last quarter of the year to $28,000 thus transferring $224,954 worth of trade to this country.

Not long ago The Gazette remarked that no business man who made persistent, energetic and regular use of its advertising column had ever gone into bankruptcy. Now comes further testimony to the value of a good newspaper. James M. Ray, who by edicts the North Platte Telegraph, in his last issue remarks: "It is over fifteen years since the writer commenced newspaper work, and in all this time cannot recall a serious accident to a single railway employee whose subscription to the Telegraph was paid up. It may not be generally known, but a paid up newspaper subscription seems to be better than an accident policy, as it appears to prevent the accidents."

In the gradual change that in late years has turned this country into a producer of manufactured products rather than of raw materials—that is, in so far as the foreign market is concerned—the millers have reason to feel gratified. The export for the last ten months was $2,917,100 barrels of flour, valued at $40,179,678, compared with $3,293,868 barrels of wheat, valued at $30,105,956. The problem of shipping our wheat as flour is solving itself through the great protection and system of American mills.

One of the disinterested philanthropists is the wealthy Canadian who goes about announcing that if everybody in America will add three inches to each step it will save $27,000,000 in shoe leather. Those who go barefooted, however, will have no part in it.

The silver product of Colorado is computed to have increased from $15,000,000 three years ago to $20,250,000, the past year. This is about $50 for every man, woman and child in the state. It is not surprising that its people at Washington would enhance the value of silver.

BRIEF BADGER PERSONALS.

Colonel W. F. Vilas is said to have several new rubber stamps with which to brand "Traitor to the Cause" on every democrat who sneers at his senatorial boom.

Gov. Peck has none but the kindest thoughts for Mr. Thurman. He has just bestowed an appointment upon a Wisconsin "Gid Roman"—Roman Chervinski.

Commissioner Thom's term of office does not expire until February, and he will remain here until then undoubtedly, unless he is legislated out of office sooner.

General Bragg did not attend Colonel Vilas' Madison posse pow-wow, and the Evening Wisconsin suggests that he was probably putting an edge on the knife he is now carrying in his boot.

Evening Wisconsin—It is reported from Beloit that Clinton Babbitt is preparing a bill which he will introduce in congress on taking his seat, fixing the price of wheat at $1 per bushel. Mr. Babbitt was always a true friend of the farmer.

Colonel Casson, private secretary for Governor Rank and Governor Board, was recently offered the position of private secretary to secretary Rank, but he refused him, and it is reported that he will now accept.

E. G. Timme says there will be no republican-democratic coalition against Vilas. The Madison colonel, he says, will get the senatorship on the first ballot, the republican vote going solidly to Spooner.

THE CENSUS PAY-ROLLS.

Figuring Up the Cost of Taking the Recent Enumeration.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Disbursing Officer Stoddard of the Census Bureau is glancing over his figures in order to give Superintendent Porter some data as to what the census would cost and how many people were engaged in getting it up. The books show that 2,116 people are on the census pay-roll here in Washington, and they draw $155,000 monthly. Of these fully 1,000 are women who receive from $50 a month to $1,600 a year. It took 48,000 enumerators to gather the census figures and their returns were made to 175 State inspectors, who employed 700 clerks. The total number of people, therefore, who have been at work taking the census at one time is about 55,000, the population of a good-sized town, including men, women and children. The total cost of the census up to December 31 was $4,810,152. The pay-roll for last month alone was $650,932. Thus far the enumerators scattered around the country have drawn about $2,000,000. The points will be given to Mr. Porter, who will get them into shape, thus finding the cost of the census.

In the afternoon the delegates went into secret session for the purpose of formal organization. The conference will hereafter hold daily sessions at the Arlington Hotel.

The House proceeded to the election of a permanent speaker, the vote resulting as follows: Crafts (Dem.), 77; Hunter (Rep.), 73; Moore (Farmers Alliance), 3. Mr. Crafts made a short speech of thanks for the honor bestowed upon him. The other Democratic caucus nominees were made permanent officers of the House.

"Measures will be proposed to provide for the Australian system of voting; to provide for a uniform system of text-books in our common schools; to provide for the election of the members of the State Board of Railroad and Warehouse Commissioners by the people; to revise our laws in order to better the condition of our miners; to provide for a shorter work day for the laboring classes; to regulate the charges of various corporations for the services they render the people; to reduce salaries of the official class drawn from taxpayers; to promote the success of the world's exposition at Chicago; besides, there will be the regular appropriations for the maintenance of the State Government and the State institutions for the insane and the appointment bills for redistricting the State into new Senatorial and Congressional districts."

Committees were appointed to notify the Governor and the Senate that the House was ready for business, and a concurrent resolution was adopted providing for a joint session at 3 p. m. to-day to canvass the votes cast at the recent election for State officers. The House then adjourned.

About 5 o'clock the House sent the official canvass to the Senate with a resolution referring it to the joint committee on canvass of votes for State officers. The Senate had voted not to select a committee to canvass the year, when the returns came in the Senate appointed a special committee of its own to examine and report upon them. After two hours' conference the majority of the committee (two Democrats) reported that Luzon B. Morris was elected Governor and that the regular Democratic ticket was chosen. Four officers in citizens' dress occupied seats on the steps leading to the speaker's desk. At the Democratic caucus in the forenoon the placing of policemen in the State-house was denounced.

In the House the Democrats made no effort to obstruct the proceedings. E. G. Clark was elected speaker and S. S. Jewett clerk. A recess was then taken until 3 p. m. The Senate organized at noon, electing Mr. McLean, of the Milford district, president.

AN ARMY PORTIA

By Capt. Chas. King, U. S. A.,

Author of "The Colonel's Daughter," "The Deserter," "From the Ranks," "Dun-racen Ranch," "Two Soldiers."

(Copyright, 1900, by J. B. Lippincott Company, Philadelphia, and published by special arrangement with them.)

the insolence of his language and the consequences, had finally assumed the position of a soldier—so far at least as his heels and legs were concerned, but his head hung forward and his eyes glared furtively about the room as if in search of sympathy; but there was not a soldier to side with him.

"Take that man under guard," were at last the words that fell from the lieutenant's lips.

A corporal stepped quickly forward.

"Come, Wren," he muttered in no gentle tone, and led the scowling trooper from the room.

The lieutenant calmly finished his inspection of the quarters, a red spot burning in each cheek as he walked around from bunk to bunk. Then, as he turned away and lightly descended the stairs, he heard the lieutenant's voice.

"Rest!" The men looked quickly about at one another. Some of them stretched their arms to full length and gave a long sigh, as though to find relief from the strain. And then little Duffy announced his opinion:

"By gad, fellers, if I'd been the lieutenant I'd have knocked the top of his head off."

The garrison court which tried Trooper Welsh for insubordination had found him guilty, despite his statement that according to the tactics he wasn't required to get up and salute, he being at work. The evidence of the sergeants established the fact that he was playing dead when the lieutenant approached, and that the spur cleaning was a transparent sham, introduced for the occasion and for evident purpose. But in view of the fact that he claimed to believe that, as the captain's orderly, he was not under the lieutenant's orders, in view of the fact that he had apparently been only ten months in service, and in view of the further fact that his captain gave him an excellent character and pleaded for clemency for the recruit, the court saw fit to let him off easily with a fine.

Mr. Mason, the adjutant, and Mr. Hearn were strongly of the opinion that he ought to be returned to the troop at once and taught his duties as a soldier.

But the colonel was away just then; Maj. Kenyon, of the infantry, was temporarily in command, and he would not disturb old Blauvelt's "stricker."

Indeed, it seemed as though the troop commander was disposed to resent Hearn's having ordered the man to be confined, though the young officer was actually in command of the troops at that time.

FAIL BUT STILL FIGHT.

Two Mutual Companies in Receivers' Hands.

PHIL CHEEK SUED FOR LIBEL.

Managers Hold Him Responsible For the Failure.

SENTINEL A CO-DEFENDANT.

The Wisconsin Mutual and the Milwaukee Mutual Fire Insurance Companies Figure as Plaintiffs—Both Are Badly Involved.

MILWAUKEE, Jan. 8.—[Special.]—A burst of excitement was created here today by the announcement of the failure of the Wisconsin Mutual Fire Insurance Company and the Milwaukee Fire Insurance Company, both of this city.

An hour after the failure was announced, it was given out that ex Insurance Commissioner Phil Cheek and the Milwaukee Sentinel Company are defendants in a libel suit, in which the two companies figure as plaintiffs, and ask for damages in the sum of $25,000 in each case.

On the motion of the Atlas Paper Company, of Appleton, the superior court appointed S. H. Samsens as receiver for the defendant concerns with a bond of $100,000.

The failure is charged to an interview with Commissioner Cheek, which appeared in the Sentinel.

The Cheek interview to which the failure is ascribed, appeared in the Sentinel two weeks ago. In the course of it the insurance commissioner alleged that mutual companies were not under proper restrictions, and that the Wisconsin laws made it possible to victimize patrons without hindrance. Coming as it did at about the same time as the numerous banking failures, it threw upon the mutual companies much the same shadow that rested upon the private banks.

Mr. Cheek was questioned as to whether he had been correctly reported, and insisted that what he said was strictly true. It was then charged that he had made the statements with a view to influencing business to "old-line" companies, for one of which he has lately become Wisconsin manager.

It is understood that considerable business has been done in this city by both of the involved companies, although there is no resident agent here. Insurance men report that they frequently find insurance written in these companies, but the aggregate amount is unknown. The fire record has no account of their risks as they are Wisconsin companies, and as such do not pay the fire tax.

SHE MET INSTANT DEATH.

Details of the Tragic Ride of Mary Gilbertson.

Additional facts regarding the death of Miss Mary Gilbertson, came to this office from Brookfield. When the party started from the dance at 5 o'clock Sunday morning, Miss Gilbertson, and Bert and Gilbertson were together in a buggy. The horses became restive, and Bert tried to control them, but the dashboard gave way, and he fell out headlong carrying the reins out with him.

This frightened the horses still more, and they ran away. Miss Gilbertson was either thrown out or jumped out, probably the latter, and Mr. Gilbertson was thrown out. As the frightened team dashed past Mr. Hei, he saw the buggy had no occupants and he at once turned back to render assistance. He found that all were more or less injured, and he hastened to the village and summoned Dr. Anderson. On examination, the doctor found that Miss Mary Gilbertson must have been killed instantly, her neck being dislocated. The young men were badly bruised and Bert Gilbertson received some wounds on the head, but neither one was serious or injured.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, introduced by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from ten drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75 c.

DRIVEN BACK TO FIGHT.

BRUTAL EXHIBITION WITNESSED BY LOCAL SPORTS.

Beloit and Janesville Bull Dogs Matched—Beloit Dog Forced Back to the Pit When Practically Disabled And Made to Fight.

Three hundred from Janesville, Beloit, Monroe, Whitewater and Brodhead witnessed a dog-fight for a twenty-five dollar purse last night. The scene of the fight was a large barn located in Winnebago county, Illinois, and was within one hundred yards of the state line.

"Who owns this farm?" inquired a reporter, addressing a granger-looking individual entering the building with a bag in one hand.

"Young man; did you ever visit this place before?"

"Well, sir; you must not ask such questions. The house is empty; people come here occasionally and go away as they come—unknown. No one knows or cares who owns the place. If a man wanted to buy it, he probably could find the owner."

The barn floor was filled with spectators by 9 o'clock but it was not until after 11 o'clock that the fight began. Two white bulls were then let out for a trial, and chewed one another for ten minutes. Then they were separated, and a few minutes later the main fight was on. The Beloit dog had a slight advantage over the one from Janesville in that it was four pounds the heavier. For one hour and fifty minutes the fight continued, but it was plainly seen that at the end of the first hour the Beloit dog was ready to quit but an opportunity was given him to get out of the pit. Twice he attempted to run, but was turned back to renew the fight.

At the expiration of one hour and fifty minutes the referee threw up his hands and exclaimed:

"Gentlemen, I declare this fight a draw."

Pandemonium broke loose, and the referee hastily left the scene.

"A chicken fight" followed but was somewhat of a failure. Janesville sports had purchased a number of birds, but they were not delivered on the ground as agreed. Therefore only four or five "battles" were fought, and very little betting was done. Most of the birds were owned by Beloit parties.

"I have witnessed several prize fights dog-fights and cock-fights," said one of the large stockowners in the Beloit Iron Works, "but this dog-fight was the most brutal I ever witnessed; and I assure you it will be the last I will attend."

"That ends dog-fighting with me," said a bull-dog fancier from the Fourth ward, as he started for the train on the home trip. "I have raised a good many bull-dogs in my life, and have seen a good many fights, but this is enough. I have a good bull-dog that some one may have by calling at my house."

So disgusting was the brutality shown that nearly one-half the crowd left the barn before the first pair of roosters were "beetled."

Newspaper reporters were present from Beloit, Rockford, Milwaukee, Madison and Janesville, and all agreed that it was a scene that ought not to occur again.

"It would have been a good joke on us if the Rock county officer had telegraphed the sheriff of Winnebago county to follow up this crowd," said a Beloit sport. "He could have caught the whole crowd if he tried. Everybody knew about it here in Beloit, but only a few had tickets."

FEEL HUNGER'S PANG.

Appeal of Nebraska People to Janesville Charity Answered.

Steps are being taken to make a regular canvass of the city in behalf of the Nebraska sufferers. Until arrangements are completed, however, supplies may be left with Rev. M. Evans, Academy street; Rev. Lawson, 117 Tenth street, and at Ball & Bates grocery. Mr. Lawson has recently received letters from Nebraska which indicate that great destitution prevails. Rev. T. S. Mother, Mr. Lawson's brother-in-law, writes from McCook, Nebraska:

"I never expected to see in the United States such poverty and suffering as is all about us. I have in my travels as preacher and lecturer visited about thirteen counties, and such destitution I never witnessed. I have been in homes, if I may call them such, and houses that few eastern farmers would deem fit for their cattle. The drought came upon them last summer and literally destroyed everything. corn, oats, wheat, rye, barley, potatoes, everything except the buffalo grass. When our blizzards come thousands of work horses and cattle must perish and leave the people without teams for spring work. I am moved by the appalling prospect before us when the winter shuts down upon us."

The same state of affairs is pictured in a letter from Rev. J. T. Roberts, of Indiana, Neb. Says Mr. Roberts:

"Having traveled through several counties this fall I can say from personal knowledge that the county in which I live is in about the same condition as are those western counties. A member of the church living a few miles from the county seat has six in his family, and five horses. He cultivated 107 acres. The total yield was 10½ bushels of wheat, 2½ bushels of rye, no oats, 30 bushels of corn, 2 bushels of potatoes, and 5 tons of millet. He is no worse off than his neighbors, and in better fix than most of them; all are moneyless and dependent upon charity until the next crop is gathered. From 500 to 800 families in this county are destitute. Multiply this number by the number of counties that are in the same condition, and it is apparent that a few cities in the eastern part of the state cannot successfully undertake to care for them until next harvest."

Attention Light Infantry: The annual meeting of the Janesville Light Infantry will be held Thursday evening January 8, 1891. A full attendance is desired as officers will be elected for the ensuing year, and other matters of business will come before the meeting. By order JOHN G. REYNOLDS, President.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, introduced by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from ten drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75 c.
